Applicant: Roscommon County Council

Location: Cluain Airne Traveller Accommodation, Killerney Td., Lanesborough Rd., Roscommon.

Proposal: Pursuant to the requirements of the above, notice is hereby given of ...

Proposed Residential Development at Cluain Airne traveller accommodation site, Killerney Td., Lanesborough Rd., Roscommon. The Proposed Development will comprise the construction of a) 2 No. single storey 2 bedroom detached houses and (b) all associated site works including construction of footpaths, access road, street lighting, ducting for utilities, upgrade to existing foul and surface water drainage arrangements and existing utilities.

An appropriate assessment screening report and environmental impact assessment screening report of the proposed development has been completed and is available for inspection with this development. The reports concluded that a full EIAR is not required and that the development does not need to proceed to Stage 2 appropriate assessment. Where any person considers that a development proposed to be carried out would be likely to have significant effects on the environment, he or she may, at any time before the expiration of 4 weeks beginning on the date of publication of the notice referred to in Article 81(2), apply to An Bord Pleanála for a screening determination as to whether the development would be likely to have such effects. Plans and Particulars of the proposed development may be inspected or purchased at a fee not exceeding the reasonable cost of making a copy for a period of 4 weeks from 13/08/2021 during public opening hours at the offices of the Housing Department, Aras an Chontae, Roscommon County Council, Roscommon. Plans and particulars can also be viewed online on the Roscommon County Council website at the following link:
